This brochure supplement provides information about Michael John Mussio that supplements the FBB Capital Partners brochure. You should have received a copy of that brochure. Please contact our office at 301-657-8870 if you have any questions about the contents of this supplement. Additional information about Michael John Mussio is available on the SEC's website at www.adviserinfo.sec.gov.

Item 2 Educational Background and Business Experience

Michael John Mussio (Mike) was born in 1978. He graduated from Ohio University in 2000 with a BS degree in Finance and Marketing. In 2008, he graduated with a Masters of Business Administration from the University of Virginia's Darden School of Business. Mike has been a Portfolio Manager with FBB Capital Partners since January 2008, and Managing Director 2013 to 2016 and became President of FBB Capital Partners in 2017. Prior to that time, he was a Financial Consultant with Charles Schwab & Co., Inc. from September 2000 to August 2006. While at Darden, Mike was selected to serve as a senior portfolio manager, responsible for actively managing a portion of UVA's endowment. He was also invited to participate in a research elective on ethics and morality that included a select group of students from the Business, Medical, and Law schools.

Michael J. Mussio has earned the designation CERTIFIED FINANCIAL PLANNER™ (CFP®) in 2005 and is in good standing with the granting authority: Certified Financial Planner, Board of Standards, Inc. The CFP® certification is a voluntary certification; no federal or state law or regulation requires financial planners to hold CFP® certification. It is recognized in the United States and a number of other countries for its (1) high standard of professional education including subject areas of insurance planning and risk management, employee benefits planning, investment planning, income tax planning, retirement planning, and estate planning; (2) stringent code of conduct and standards of practice; and (3) ethical requirements that govern professional engagements with clients. Certificants have passed a ten-hour exam and complete 30 hours of continuing education every two years.

Michael is a Chartered Financial Analyst (CFA®) charterholder and earned the designation in 2013 and is in good standing with the granting authority: The CFA Institute.

The CFA® Charter is a globally recognized, graduate-level investment credential. Earning it demonstrates a commitment to professional ethics and expertise with the broad range of skills needed in the investment profession. Each CFA® must have a minimum of four years of experience in the industry prior to a rigorous course of study followed by a six hour exam.

Item 3 Disciplinary Information

Registered Investment Advisors are required to disclose all material facts regarding any legal or disciplinary events that would be material to an evaluation of each person providing investment advice. No information is applicable to this item for Michael John Mussio.

Item 4 Other Business Activities

A. Investment-Related Activities

Mike is not engaged in any other investment-related activities. He is not registered, nor does he have an application pending to register, as a broker-dealer, registered representative of a broker-dealer, futures commission merchant (FCM), commodity pool operator (CPO) commodity trading advisor (CTA), or an associated person of a FCM, CPO, or CTA. Mike does not receive commissions, bonuses or other compensation on the sale of securities or other investment products.

Please contact our office at 301-657-8870 if you have any questions about the contents of this supplement. Additional information about Kathleen Mack Hastings is available on the SEC's website at www.adviserinfo.sec.gov.

Item 2 Educational Background and Business Experience

Kathleen Mack Hastings was born in 1952. She graduated from San Diego State University with a BA degree in Art History in 1976. She has been a portfolio manager with FBB Capital Partners since June 2004. She was a Financial Consultant with Charles Schwab & Co. Inc. from March 1997 to May 2004. She worked for American Express Financial Advisors from January 1994 to February 1997.

Kathleen has earned the designation CERTIFIED FINANCIAL PLANNER™ (CFP®) in 1992 and is in good standing with the granting authority: the Certified Financial Planner, Board of Standards, Inc.

The CFP® certification is a voluntary certification; no federal or state law or regulation requires financial planners to hold CFP® certification. It is recognized in the United States and a number of other countries for its (1) high standard of professional education including subject areas of insurance planning and risk management, employee benefits planning, investment planning, income tax planning, retirement planning, and estate planning; (2) stringent code of conduct and standards of practice; and (3) ethical requirements that govern professional engagements with clients. Certificants have passed a ten-hour exam and complete 30 hours of continuing education every two years.

Kathleen received the Chartered Advisor for Senior Living (CASL®) designation in 2007 and is in good standing with the granting authority: The American College.

The CASL® credential provides advisors with in-depth training on issues impacting seniors and those planning for retirement. The designation incorporates five required, college-level courses that represent an average total study time of more than 250 hours. Topics include investments, estate planning, health and long-term care financing, and financial decisions for retirement. CASL® designees must meet experience, continuing education and ethics requirements.

Kathleen received the Chartered Financial Consultant® (ChFC®) designation in 2002 and is in good standing with the granting authority: The American College.

The ChFC® designation has been a mark of excellence for almost thirty years and currently requires nine college-level courses, the most of any financial planning credential. Average study time to earn the ChFC® exceeds 450 hours. Required courses cover extensive education and application training in financial planning, income taxation, investments, and estate and retirement planning. Additional electives are chosen from such topics as macroeconomics, financial decisions for retirement, and executive compensation. ChFC® designees must meet experience requirements and adhere to continuing education and ethical standards. The credential is awarded by The American College, a non-profit educator with an 86-year heritage and the highest level of academic accreditation.

Kathleen received Certified Life Underwriter (CLU®) designation in 2001 and is in good standing with the granting authority: The American College.

The CLU® designation is one of the oldest and most respected credentials in financial services, dating back to the late 1920's. It represents a thorough understanding of a broad array of personal risk management and life insurance planning issues and stresses ethics, professionalism, and in-depth knowledge in the delivery of financial advice. CLU® candidates must complete eight college-level courses, five required and three electives. The required courses include Fundamentals of Insurance Planning; Individual Life Insurance; Life Insurance Law; Fundamentals of Estate Planning; and Planning for Business Owners and Professionals. Elective topics cover financial planning, health insurance, income taxation, group benefits, investments, and retirement planning. The designation requires three-years of full-time, relevant business experience. Designees must adhere to The American College's Code of Ethics, which includes the following professional pledge: "I shall, in light of all conditions surrounding those I serve, which I shall make every conscientious effort to ascertain and understand, render that service which, in the same circumstances, I would apply to myself."

*Please be advised that FBB Capital Partners does not sell insurance products. While FBB Capital Partners will help guide its clients in planning for their insurance needs, an independent insurance specialist should be consulted prior to, and for, purchasing insurance products.

Item 2 Educational Background and Business Experience

John Petrofsky was born in 1986. He graduated from Stanford University with a B.A. in International Relations in 2008. John received his MBA from the University of Virginia's Darden Graduate School of Business. He has been a Portfolio Manager at FBB Capital Partners since October 2017. While at Darden, John served as the Senior Portfolio Manager for the Monticello Fund of Darden Capital Management, a student-run investment club that actively manages a portion of the University's endowment. Prior to Darden, John worked as a Senior Consulting Associate at Cambridge Associates. During this time, he assisted clients with asset allocation, investment policy statements, manager monitoring and selection, and portfolio management. John's previous experience in financial services includes Torray LLC from 2014-2017.

John has earned the designation of Chartered Financial Analyst (CFA®) Charterholder in 2017 and is in good standing with the granting authority: The CFA Institute.

The CFA® Charter is a globally recognized, graduate-level investment credential. Earning it demonstrates a commitment to professional ethics and expertise with the broad range of skills needed in the investment profession. Each CFA® must have a minimum of four years of experience in the industry prior to a rigorous course of study followed by a six-hour exam.

John has earned the designation of CHARTERED ALTERNATIVE INVESTMENT ANALYST (CAIA®) in 2010. The CAIA® designation is a voluntary certification; no federal or state law or regulation requires financial planners or advisers to hold the CAIA® designation. CAIA® is the globally-recognized credential for professionals managing, analyzing, distributing, or regulating alternative investments. Successful completion requires over 200 hours of study and two exams.
